MEMORANDUM FOR: National Intelligence Officer
for Warning

SUBJECT : Meeting of Washington Area Operations
Centers' Conference [redacted]

1. The Washington Area Operations Centers' Conference (WAOCC) met [redacted] on 17 and 18 May 1982. A list of attendees is attached. [redacted]

2. Agenda items included:

a. A briefing by [redacted] DIA/JSW on the DoD World Wide Indicator Monitoring System (WWIMS). [redacted]

b. A discussion of problems and procedures for the WASHFAX was conducted, and a joint policy on the use of the WASHFAX was drafted. (Attachment B) It was also noted that the Commerce Department had requested to be added to the WASHFAX network. All agencies had concurred directly to the National Communications System. [redacted]

c. The CIA representative presented a briefing on the reorganization of the Office of Current Operations (now called the Office of Current Production and Analytic Support--OCPAS) and the position of the CIA Operations Center in OCPAS. [redacted]

d. The State Department representative chaired a discussion on "Support for Traveling Negotiators". While this is primarily a state responsibility, all centers have similar requirements to support their principals. [redacted]

MEMORANDUM FOR: All WASHFAX Subscribers

FROM : Executive Secretary
Washington Area Operations Centers' Conference

SUBJECT : WASHFAX User Policy

1. The Washington Area Operations Centers' Conference sets policy on the use of WASHFAX facilities and has established the following guidelines. Depending on their equipment capacity and personnel restrictions, individual Agencies may set more restrictive limits for their own customers.

2. The WASHFAX is intended primarily for transmission of time critical, classified information such as intelligence evaluations, recommendations and subsequent actions of WASHFAX subscribers. To preserve the integrity of this system, transmission will be limited to time sensitive, classified documents of 10 (ten) pages or less. Material not meeting these guidelines will be returned to sender to channel into more appropriate electronic or courier systems. Exceptions to this policy are expected to be limited and will be approved at the Operations Center director/chief level or higher.

3. Continued violation of these guidelines should be brought to the attention of the relevant Operations Center manager and to the members of the Washington Area Operations Centers' Conference.
